TRAVEL SERVICES

30 YEARS

At Stage and Screen, our commitment goes beyond managing logistics, we're invested in your production success story. While travel arrangements may seem like background details, we've seen firsthand how they can become decisive factors in filmmaking outcomes.

What truly matters to us is understanding your unique rhythm. Every film production has its own cadence, creative requirements, and shooting schedules. That's why our leadership team has been carefully assembled to bring diverse expertise from across the film and travel landscapes.

Our experienced Stage and Screen staff have orchestrated travel for major studio productions, international film festivals, and location shoots worldwide. We've navigated challenges from volcanic eruptions to pandemic disruptions, always with one goal: keeping cast and crew performing at their best despite whatever obstacles arise.

This depth of experience means we don't just react to your requirements, we anticipate them. We know when a flight delay threatens more than convenience; it compromises shooting schedules. We understand when accommodation selection becomes a production factor, not just a place to sleep.

We've built our reputation in the film industry by moving beyond being just travel professionals. We've become production partners who measure our success by your results, both on set and in the final cut.

I invite you to engage with our team and discover the difference that three decades of film-focused expertise can make to your creative vision.

TRAVEL THAT PERFORMS AS HARD AS YOU DO

WHEN EVERY FRAME COUNTS, EVERY TRAVEL DETAIL MATTERS

For film directors and production companies, travel isn't just about getting from A to B - it's an essential component of production strategy. Every minute of shooting time, every piece of equipment transported, every location challenge avoided directly impacts what happens when the cameras roll.

At Stage and Screen, we've spent 30 years perfecting the science of production-focused travel management. We understand the difference between a traveller and a filmmaker travelling. Between a business trip and a location shoot. Between standard service and the specialised support that delivers cinematic excellence.

'We don't just move filmmakers around the world. We protect their potential to create their best work when they arrive on set.'
